Mr. Venner, secretary of the Carrizozo Cattle Ranch Co., visited the lower levels of the Old Abe mine Wednesday and was interested in the processes of milling gold ores.
Ranchmen and others, especially those living in the eastern part of this county, will conserve their interests by calling on Joyce, Fruit & Co., when in Roswell, for dry goods, groceries, etc.

The New Mexican of the 18th says: Hon. J. F. Hinkle, of Lincoln county, left this morning for Kansas City, where he will meet his family en route home from an extended visit to Missouri.
Sam. A. Neid and Anton Hagvall returned Tuesday evening from a five weeks' trip to Albuquerque and Jemez Springs, looking much improved from the effects of the healing waters of the famous resort beyond Albuquerque.

Mr. Schinzling is expected home, accompanied by Mrs. S., in a day or two. From the way the up-country newspapers have had the names of these gentlemen spelled and mixed, their friends here began to fear that assassination had overtaken them.

40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

Mr. Magnus Tait, of Los Gatos, Cal., and a friend of Arthur J. Bond, whom the older residents of White Oaks know, came in Saturday night and is spending some time investigating the mineral resources of this vicinity and the Jicarillas in particular. Mr. Tait is vice president of the Commercial bank of Los Gatos, a leader in Grand Army circles in California and an enterprising citizen and business man of his locality. He lives in one of the most charming regions of that delightful state.

Referring to the report of the finding of a dead man between Three Rivers and Tularosa, we are now inclined to the opinion that it was all false, as Mr. S. E. Welding has been in White Oaks since that date and emphatically denies that he was found dead at the time and place named, or at any other time or place, and diligent inquiry fails to corroborate the report in circulation two weeks ago.

A. S. Chingling, A. Hagood and S. C. Reed, of White Oaks, were in Albuquerque recently, according to the Citizen's hotel personals. The parties alluded to are doubtless A. Schinzling, A. Hagood and S. A. Neid. We have heard of nothing to their discredit here, and hope they have not committed any offense of such heinous nature as to necessitate change of cognomen while in the metropolis of the territory.

Bi-monthly examinations in all departments of our graded schools are in progress this week, and the showing of advancement by the pupils is creditable alike to the ability of their teachers, the discipline prevailing and the all-necessary application of the pupils themselves. Next week we shall begin publishing the monthly reports, showing the average standing of each individual pupil.

A man was before his honor Monday morning for addressing offensive language to a woman. The defendant was fined $10 and costs and the husband of the woman was given a lecture, without costs, by the court for standing by and permitting the aforesaid offensive language. There is danger, it is thought, of a prosecution of the court for an "assault with words" on the husband.

S. I. Redfield and E. S. Miller, of Roswell, came in Monday, visited the Jicarillas same day, and departed Tuesday by private conveyance for Socorro. Mr. R. is owner of the Register at Roswell, and Mr. M. has been associated with him for some time. The former will soon return to his post, but the latter will seek "green fields and pastures new."

Mr. C. H. Brown, formerly a newspaper man at Nogal, recently appointed postmaster at Fort Stanton, was a caller at this office yesterday. While in the composition room he demonstrated the fact that one never forgets practical knowledge of the "art preservative of all arts" by manipulating the "silent messengers of thought."

A little 6-year-old, hearing an older person ask for "to-may-toes," wanted to know if it would be proper to say "potatoes." And yet another, living in New England desired to know why, if Worcester was pronounced Wooster, Rochester should not be pronounced Rooster.

The city of Jicarillas, eleven miles northeast of White Oaks, is most beautifully situated on the divide between Ancho and Rico canons, and on a clear day one can see a hundred miles to the north over a very beautiful mountainous country. The town boasts of a postoffice, two stores and half a dozen houses.

Officer Chas. D. Mayer returned Tuesday night from Prescott, Ariz., where he found Emmet Yates, for whose arrest he had a warrant. The prisoner is charged with cattle stealing and the preliminary hearing is set for Saturday next, before Justice Blanchard.

Sophronia Hughes, a 10-year-old pupil in our public school, was taken violently ill while at study Tuesday afternoon. Her teacher, Miss McDonald, rendered the sufferer such relief as suggested itself until the arrival of Dr. Paden, who administered restoratives, after which the little one was removed to her home, where she is confined to her bed.

There is said to be some sign of wild turkey between the Park and Nogal, and yet our hunters have not taken that route for game. Those who travel the road seldom carry a gun and the game is so jagged that one is in danger of being bitten by it.

Parsons & Wiener have leased the South Homestake mill and are running it on full time.

THE WHITE OAKS EAGLE has location notices for sale. They comply with the law and are the best location notices ever offered to the miners of Lincoln county.

The Eagle keeps sets of mining applications for patent; also deeds, mortgages, location notices, bonds for deeds, and all other legal stationery at reasonable prices.

The cam shaft of Old Abe mill, which was welded last week, twisted off again Monday night and the company has wired for a new one. Only fifteen stamps will drop pending the arrival of this shaft.

The Comerys & Green mill building, in Jicarillas, is ready for the roof, the iron for which will be on in a few days. The mill is now running on Tip-Top ore, which is said to be improving as development progresses.

The new stamp mill at Bland is now crushing 100 tons of Crown Point ore daily. The old process of treating tailings has been abandoned and more successful methods are now applied. This much has been learned from Judge W. C. Heacock, an interested citizen from the big Cochiti camp.—Citizen.

The Eagle—$2 a year.
The Eagle has quit claim deeds for sale.
The Eagle—first-class in every respect—52 numbers, only two dollars. You should have it.

John Barr committed suicide Sunday last and on Monday morning Peter J. Martin killed himself, both at Las Vegas, and each went over the six shooter route.

We have a 7-cu. Washington hand press, in good condition, with molds, extra stock, roller, etc., which we will sell for immediate delivery at railroad cheap.

Mrs. Hewitt returned from Colorado Thursday last.
The ad. of the Pecos Valley railway appears in this issue. White Oaks people going east or south will find it to their advantage to go by way of Roswell and the Pecos Valley.

P. A. Lefren, the jeweler, is prepared to do all kinds of work in his line at reasonable prices. Those who have given him work to do speak in the highest praise of his workmanship.

Don't buy your winter suit or overcoat before you see our new line of clothing, as we know we can sell you a better garment at low price than any one else in town.
ZIEGLER BROS.

Talk is cheap, but there seems to be more truth than poetry in the report about the White Oaks road being built. C. B. Eddy is buying all the coal lands he can and at good prices.—Irrigator.

A job lot of ladies' fine shoes, any pair of them usually retailing at $5 and $6. Your choice at $3. The very latest styles. Sizes, 2 1/2 to 5 1/2.
